

Metrolina Chapter Recognition Night 2022

2023-11-02

Students and apprentices who won various masonry competitions over the past twelve months, along with their parents, employers, and “significant others,” were hosted for a “low-country-boil” early in November at The Farmstead wedding venue in Mount Pleasant by the NCMCA Metrolina Chapter. Pictured, left to right, Metrolina Chapter President and NCMCA Central Region Vice President Brandon Hartsell along with the top finishers from the May 2022 Samuel A. McGee Memorial Masonry Apprenticeship Skills Contest; Cam Hill, fifth place; Christian Klutz, Contest Champion; Cade Huntley, second place; Mason Saunders, fourth place; and Kent Huntley, whose firm, Huntley Brother Company, was recognized for having the contest’s winning apprentice. Winners from state and national contests were also recognized. Photo

Jodi Helms

